

Where to Display Your 501(c)(3) Status on Your Website

Since your 501(c)(3) nonprofit status adds credibility and reassures donors, volunteers, and partners, you should display it in multiple strategic locations on your website:

1. Footer (Always Visible)

Include a statement like:

NTB International is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. All donations are tax-deductible to the extent allowed by law. EIN: [Your EIN Here].

This should appear site-wide in your footer, so visitors can see it on every page.

2. Give/Donate Page

On your GIVE page, add a section like this:

Tax-Deductible Giving

NTB International is a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization (EIN: [Your EIN]). Your donations are tax-deductible and directly support training, business development, and Kingdom-driven entrepreneurship.

✉ Need a donation receipt? Contact us at [your email].

3. About Us or FAQ Page

Create a "Nonprofit Status" section under About Us or a FAQ page with this content:

Is NTB International a registered nonprofit?

Yes! NTB International is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization recognized by the IRS. Our mission is to empower entrepreneurs in developing countries through vocational training, business mentorship, and faith-based education.

How can I verify your 501(c)(3) status?

You can verify our tax-exempt status directly on the IRS Tax Exempt Organization Search tool here by entering our EIN: [Your EIN].

4. Proof of 501(c)(3) Status

Some donors or grant organizations may request formal proof. Here's what you can do:

✓ Upload a copy of your IRS Determination Letter (PDF format) to your website under the Give or About page, with a link like:

📎 Download Our 501(c)(3) Determination Letter [PDF]

✓ Direct donors to IRS Tax Exempt Organization Search (as noted above) so they can independently verify your status.

Final Recommendation

- Place the EIN and nonprofit status in the footer.
- Include tax-deductibility info on your Give page.

- Add a FAQ section answering common 501(c)(3) questions.
- Offer a downloadable IRS Determination Letter for proof.
